Presidents Report

Hi all.

It was good to see so many members at the meeting at Joe's this month. I am sorry about being spread out so much and some of you had trouble hearing but we have to live with it and move some chairs around so you can. We do get the place for free so we need to make allowances.

Inter Club Challenge

The first round of the Inter Club Challenge was a lot of fun with 8 of our club members attending to wage war on the Falcon/Fairlane club and the Van Club. Afterwards some of us went for a debrief at Burgers and Beers in Colombo Street. Let us see if we can get more interest in the next one (Archary). Thanks to all those that did put in the time to support our club. Milton has put in the results for the night.

Next Meeting

The next meeting is the AGM so if you care about your club and who is running it get your nomination form and then the voting form in or come along to the meeting and have your say.

At the time of writing this no one has sent anything in and they have to be returned in two days.

We also need to get the Show and Shine Trophy's back at the AGM please.

Chch All Aus. Day

Glenn, Jane and Paul are organising the Chch All Aus. Day on Nov 8th at Ouruhia Reserve from 10 to 2. More info to follow.

HOW YOU DOING?

A tourist driving down the road experiences mechanical problems with his F%#D. The engine splutters to a stop and he parks the F%#D by the side of the road and waits for help.

Not much later, a farmer happens to pass by with a truck load of animals. The farmer offers the tourist a lift in to town and proceeds to explain that he is bringing his animals to the town market, where they will be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

Well, it so happens that on the way to town, the farmer being so engrossed in his story, unintentionally veers onto the wrong side of the road where another vehicle is approaching from the other direction.

The farmer realises his absent mindedness and attempts to avoid the possible collision with the other vehicle. He just misses the other car, but unfortunately crashes the truck into the side of the road. The tourist winds up thrown into a ditch and suffers broken ribs and a broken arm and leg and is obviously in extreme pain. The farm animals are all messed up very badly and the farmer, although remaining inside the vehicle, still suffers cuts and scrapes.

The farmer gets out of the truck and looks at his animals. The chickens all have broken limbs and can barely move. "These chickens are all useless! Nobody will want to buy these chickens anymore!" bellows the farmer. With that, he grabs and loads his shotgun and blows away the chickens.

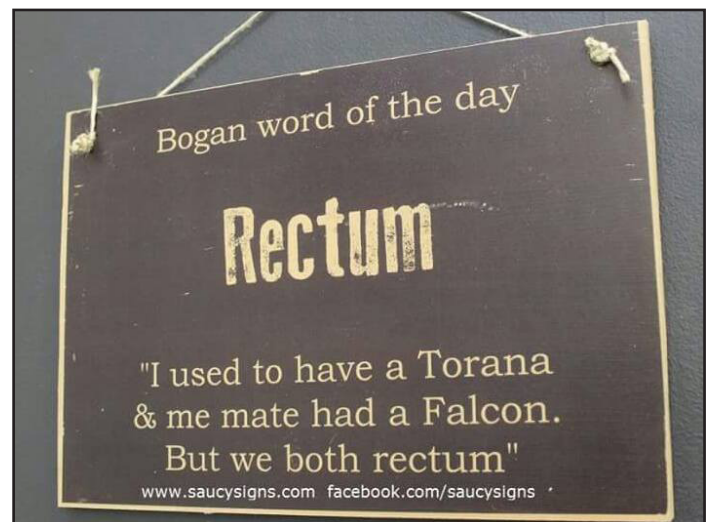

Next, he sees the pigs and they are all lame and bleeding profusely. "These pigs are all worthless now! I'll get nothing for them!" yells the farmer. With great rage, the farmer reloads the shotgun and blows away the pigs.

The farmer looks at the sheep and they all have broken limbs and their wool is all bloodied. "Worthless sheep!" screams the farmer and with that, he reloads the shotgun and blows away the sheep.

Meanwhile, the injured tourist witnesses all of the carnage in great horror. The farmer then moves over to the side of the ditch and looks at the tourist. "Are you okay down there?" asked the farmer.

"NEVER FELT BETTER IN MY ENTIRE LIFE!!!!" yelled the tourist!
